- (g) Affiliate members - shall be limited to the employees of active members, or former members who have moved out of New York State and wish affiliation for the purpose of participating in educational and vendor sponsored programs. Affiliate members shall have voice but no vote.

Section 2

Rights and Privileges

Each member of this Society shall have all the rights and privileges applicable to the class of membership as described in the Society's current policy manual, a copy of which is available for the members' information at the Society's offices.

Section 3

Application for Membership

A candidate for membership other than Honorary shall make the application in writing upon forms provided or approved by the Society. Such application shall be sent to the executive offices of the Society and will be presented to the Ethics Committee for investigation and report. Applications shall be reviewed pursuant to Society policies establishing the qualifications for membership. In case of rejection, the reasons for rejection shall be set forth in writing and provided to the applicant.

Section 4

Application by Transfer

A physician applying for membership as a transferee from any other component New York county medical society shall have that county forward a transfer application and complete an updated Society application and shall comply with all requirements provided for transfer under Article II, Section 2 of the MSSNY Bylaws.

Section 5

Election to Membership

Applicants for membership shall have their applications acted upon by the Executive Board within 120 days of the receipt of a completed application. Applicants shall be informed in writing of the decision of the Executive Board. Applicants not recommended for membership may appeal that decision in accordance with Article III, Section 6 of these Bylaws. Election to membership constitutes membership in the MSSNY and the 8th District Branch of the MSSNY.

Section 6

Appeals

Any physician who has been refused membership in the Society, or who has duly filed an application for membership which has neither been accepted nor rejected within 120 days after filing, shall have the right of appeal at the Society's next scheduled Executive Board meeting, and shall have the additional right to appeal to the MSSNY, as provided for in Article VII, Section 2 of the MSSNY Bylaws.

Section 7

Transfer Letters

A member in good standing, and against whom no known charges are pending, wishing to withdraw from Society membership and to be admitted to another component county medical society shall be granted a transfer card or letter.

Section 8

Resignation

Resignation from membership must be submitted in writing to the Secretary/Treasurer of the Society. No resignation shall be accepted from a member owing dues or assessments.

Section 9

Suspension of Membership

Upon notification from the New York State Department of Health or the Board of Regents that a member's license to practice medicine has been suspended, without a stay of that suspension, membership in the Society shall likewise be suspended without the necessity of further proceedings. A physician whose license has been suspended may, upon termination of the suspension, reapply for membership by letter to the President or Executive Director of the Society requesting reinstatement.

Section 10

Termination of Membership

(i) Upon notification from the New York State Department of Health or Board of Regents that a member's license to practice medicine has been revoked, the member's membership in the Society shall be likewise revoked without the necessity of further proceedings. Upon restoration of the physician's license, the physician may reapply for membership by the same procedure as that governing the election of new members.

(ii) A member whose dues remain unpaid at the date specified by the MSSNY shall be dropped from the rolls of membership.

Upon termination of membership, all participation in any group benefits program ceases.

Section 11

Re-Election/Reinstatement to Membership

Any physician who desires re-election to membership is subject to the same procedure as that governing the election of new members.

ARTICLE IV

Dues

Section 1

Payment and Rate

Annual dues are due and payable on the first day of January of each year. Each member shall pay annually the appropriate dues as set by the Executive Board at the last meeting of the previous administrative year. At the same time the member shall pay the amount of the MSSNY per capita dues and assessments fixed by the House of Delegates for the current year.

Section 2

Good Standing

A member is considered to be in good standing when all dues and assessments have been paid. A member whose dues and assessments are unpaid after February 1st of the current year is not in good standing and shall be deemed to be in arrears.

ARTICLE V

Conduct of Members

Members shall conduct themselves in accordance with the Principles of Professional Conduct of the MSSNY as they now are or as they may hereafter be constituted. Any intentional violation thereof shall be cause for discipline. The Bylaws and Resolutions of the Society and the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of the MSSNY which have reference to the county Societies shall be binding on members of the Society. Any intentional violation or disregard of the same shall be cause for discipline. A finding by the New York State Department of Health or Board of Regents, that a member has been found guilty of professional misconduct, as defined in Section 6509, 6509(a) or 6530 of the Education Law of the State of New York, shall also be cause for discipline.

ARTICLE VI

Discipline

The Society may censure, suspend or expel a member by a three-fourths affirmative vote of the members present and eligible to vote at a regular or special meeting called for that purpose, in accordance with the procedure herein provided. The Ethics Committee shall be charged with the duty of enforcing Article V of these Bylaws, except in the case of its own members, in which case the matter will be referred to the Executive Board.

Disciplinary proceedings against a member shall be initiated on a signed written complaint from any source. The President shall refer the complaint to the Ethics Committee, which shall meet and examine the charges of misconduct and all available and relevant evidence within 10 business days of the receipt of the referral. If the Ethics Committee agrees that there is substantial evidence supporting the charges, a hearing will be scheduled and the chair of the Ethics Committee shall notify the member by registered mail. The notice will include a copy of the signed complaint, a directive to appear in person before the Committee, and a copy of the Society's Bylaws. A minimum of 10 business days shall elapse from the date of service of the complaint to the date of the hearing to which the member has been summoned.

At that hearing, the member shall respond to the charges made in the complaint and may be represented by Counsel. The member may also produce witnesses on his/her behalf. The Ethics Committee may also call as a witness any member of the Society with not less than 5 business days' notice. A complete stenographic record of such hearing shall be taken and preserved. Within 10 business days of the conclusion of testimony, the Ethics Committee must inform the Executive Board of its decision regarding whether the charges of misconduct are substantiated and the discipline, if any, to be imposed upon the member. Within 2 business days of the Ethics Committee's decision having been given to the Executive Board, the member and accuser will be notified of the decision. If the Ethics Committee determines that the member is innocent of all charges, or that disciplinary action is not appropriate, no further report will be made to the Society.

Any member who wishes to file an appeal will be counseled to contact the Judicial Council of MSSNY by filing a notice of appeal with the Secretary of MSSNY and the Society's Secretary/Treasurer within 3 months after service of the notice of the final decision. A member wishing to file an appeal is directed to Article VII, Section 2, of the MSSNY Bylaws for information regarding the appeal procedure.

ARTICLE VII

Officers

The Officers of the Society shall be a President, a President-Elect, a Vice President, a Secretary-Treasurer, the Immediate Past President. They shall be elected to serve one year or until their successor shall have been elected or appointed as hereinafter provided.

Section 1 Responsibilities

The Officers are to act in the name of and on behalf of the members of the Society, at the direction of the Executive Board on all matters pertaining to the administration of the Society or when deemed necessary to properly conduct its business. The Officers shall be responsible for the budget, finances and long range planning of the Society. They shall have the responsibility to implement, promote, and advance programs designed to attract new members, retain current members, encourage active participation and leadership in the affairs of the Society, and to investigate and recommend programs designed to offer enhanced benefits to members.

The Officers may accept on behalf of the Society any contributions, gifts, bequest or device for the nonprofit purposes of this corporation. Such corporation is organized for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding action of any future federal tax code. Upon dissolution of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section (c) (3) or Section (c) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for public purpose. Such distribution shall be made in accordance with all applicable provisions of the laws of this state.

Section 2 Duties

- (a) President/Delegate - It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Executive Board. The President shall call special meetings of the Board whenever necessary or at the written request of four members of the Board. The President shall appoint an inspector and teller and chairperson thereof to serve when elections are held. The President shall sign Delegate Certificates and such other papers as the Society may direct, but shall not sign any warrant upon the Treasury, except by vote of the Executive Board. The President shall enforce the Constitution, Bylaws and policies of the Society and perform other such duties as pertain to the office. The President shall be a delegate to the MSSNY.
- (b) President-Elect - The President-Elect shall succeed to the presidency at the end of the President's term. In the temporary absence of the President, or at the President's request, the President-Elect shall perform the duties of the President. In the event of the death of the President, or the President's removal from office or failure to act, the President-Elect shall succeed the President for the remainder of the term of office, after which the President-Elect shall serve a further term of one year as President.
- (c) Vice President/Delegate - In the temporary absence of the President and President-Elect, or at their request, the Vice President shall perform the duties of the President. The Vice President shall further serve as the Society's program chair and shall perform other such duties as requested by the President. The Vice President shall be a delegate to the MSSNY, and co-chair the Health Law Committee.
- (d) Secretary/Treasurer - The Secretary/Treasurer shall make and keep on file correct minutes of the meetings of the Society and its Executive Board; shall issue notices of meetings; shall notify applicants for membership of their election; and shall notify those members whose County and State dues remain unpaid that they will be dropped from membership in accordance with the State's deadline date. The Secretary/Treasurer shall forward membership applications to all prospective members. The Secretary/Treasurer shall keep a roster of members, officers, and the list of delegates to the MSSNY. The Secretary/Treasurer shall certify and affix the official seal of the Society to the credentials of the delegates and to such documents as the Executive Board may direct. The Secretary/Treasurer shall certify that the Society accounts and funds are audited annually by a certified public accountant selected by the Executive Board. The Secretary/Treasurer shall be bonded at the expense of the Society in

- such reasonable sum as the Executive Board shall determine.
- (e) Immediate Past President – The Past President shall advise the Officers, and shall have other such duties as the President shall assign.

ARTICLE VIII

Executive Board

Section 1

Composition

There shall be an Executive Board consisting of the Officers of the Society, the chairpersons of all standing committees, and the chairperson and chair-elect of the delegates to the MSSNY. No employee of the Society may serve as a board chair or hold any other title with similar responsibilities. The Executive Board shall be the administrative arm of the Society. Its resolutions and actions shall be decisive and final except that all resolutions and actions of the Executive Board are subject to review, reconsideration and action by the membership at any regular meeting of the Society.

Section 2

Meetings

Meetings will be held regularly and at such other times as business may require. Special meetings of the Executive Board shall be called whenever the President deems it necessary or at the written request of four of its members.

Section 3

Quorum

A majority of its voting members, shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4

Duties

The Executive Board shall have general supervision and management of the affairs and business of the Society, and shall act for the Society in the intervals between meetings of the membership, except that it may not establish any policies or take any actions inconsistent with prior actions of the membership of the Society. It shall have charge of the property and financial affairs of the Society. The Executive Board shall also perform such other duties as are prescribed by relevant provisions of the Society's Constitution, Bylaws and policies as well as relevant New York State or Federal law or regulations or as may be expressly delegated to it by the membership. It may have such committees as it deems necessary to conduct its business. It shall exercise general supervision over the conduct of all committees, councils, or commissions and over all appointed officers, agents and employees.

Section 5

Conflict of Interest

Whenever a member of the Executive Board has a financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board, said member shall fully disclose the nature of the interest and withdraw from discussion, lobbying, and voting on the matter. In addition, prior to each member's initial election to the Executive Board, as well as annually thereafter, all members of the Executive Board shall complete, sign and submit to the Secretary/Treasurer, a conflict of interest statement. The Secretary/Treasurer shall subsequently submit all such written statements to the Board Chair.

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, all members of the Executive Board must disclose the existence of any such interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts at the Executive Board meeting. In the event such a presentation occurs, thereafter, the interested member shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement regarding the potential conflict of interest, and is prohibited from attempting to improperly influence the deliberation or voting on the matter giving rise to the conflict of interest. Any transaction or arrangement involving a potential conflict of interest shall be approved only when a majority of disinterested members determine that it is in the best interest of the Society to do so. The minutes of the Executive Board meetings at which such disclosures are made shall record the existence and resolution of the conflict.

If, because of conflicts identified, or for any other reason, the number of members of the Executive Board falls below the number required for a quorum, the issue will be tabled until the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Executive Board.

Section 6

Compensation

Any person whose compensation is being determined by the Board may not be present at or otherwise participate in any board or committee deliberation or vote concerning such person's compensation.

ARTICLE IX

Standing Committees

The standing committees of the Society shall be: Ethics, Health Law, Legislative Affairs, Medical Education, New Physician Practice, Practice Management, and Public Health and Education. All committees shall submit meeting minutes immediately after each meeting and an annual written report to the membership. No committee shall incur any expense or financial obligation without the prior approval of the Executive Board.
